W. C. T. U. Notes.

The W. C. T. U. now meets at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, instead of 4 o'clock, as heretofore.

The Band of Hope will meet at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the lecture-room of the Christian Church.

It is sad and surprising that any Christian woman can fall in her duty to ally herself with the W. C. T. U. She can give her money and the influence of her presence, when possible to the meetings of the vicinity.

It is not many months since Mr. Gladstone called the remarkable fact that England was to be congratulated upon a decrease in her revenue, since that decrease represented a less sum expended for whisky.

If all the church property in the United States was sold at the best market price it is estimated that the entire cash proceeds would be only one-third of the sum spent by the people of this country for intoxicating drinks in a single year.

If tobacco is dangerous and opium is deadly, what can be said of the distilled liquors of which the water and the drug both enter? The cigarette smoker becomes doubly a slave, for he has to fight against the numbing effects of two narcotics.

It is said that the passengers of the steamer Amsterdam, wrecked off Table Island some time since, had to face the combined perils of whisky and water. Certainly the crew and passengers, and some of them single to shore, obtained access to the liquor in the ship stores and confusion, misconduct, immorality were the results.

Surely no beverage which (according to God's holy word) contains in itself a "serpent" and a "viper" can strictly and honestly be called innocent. It may not overcome everyone who tipples with it, but the very fact that it contains such endangering qualities as that it has slain its millions upon millions for time and eternity should put it under ban.

It is stated that France is compelled to import wine for home consumption, but that makes no difference in the exports of wine from France to the United States and the inference is that if France should cease to export wine entirely, French brands of the sparkling beverage would be quite as plentiful as anything else. The secret, however, is the bottle and the label which makes the French wines nowadays.—Christian at Work.

J. A. Smith, a Gainesville, Ga., merchant, says: "For years I was a victim to the combined effects of Erysipelas and nephritis, and to Dr. E. Berberich, that baffled all medical skill. I came suited the very best physician in the United States to no good purpose. I gave every patent medicine that was recommended a faithful trial and received no benefit. I took large quantities of cathartics, a pint or more of arsenic pills. The patent medicated pills, potash mixtures fed. Instead of curing the disease, they destroyed my appetite and wrecked my system—I lost flesh and energy—I lost three years from my business and spent $2,600 in fruitless effort to regain my health. At last, however, I became so hopeless, I commenced taking S. S. S., and in a short time I was entirely cured. I waited a year after a cure was effected, and continued to take Swift's Specific oil mud as a sort of safeguard, before I was willing to make public this miraculous cure. Being assured how little the possibility of doubt that the cure was permanent, I wrote this history of my case for the benefit of my fellow-men."

My skin is now smooth as it was when a boy. I weigh more than I ever did in my life, and my general health is excellent. I have passed through last winter (which was unusually cold one), without losing a single day from my business. For the last twelve months I have had no return of the erysipelas in any shape or form, or any touch of eczema."

The stables and other outbuildings belonging to the old Walker Stephens place, together with two horses, were destroyed by fire last Monday evening, about 3 o'clock.

The farmers in this section are very much annoyed by the depredations committed by numerous foxes, crows, chickens, etc., who have won for themselves many friends. She was an exemplary member of the Episcopal Church, and, as such, endeavored to walk circumspectly in the sight of God and man. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. M. Blayne, of Frankfort, after which the remains were consigned to the tomb in the beautiful aisle of the dead, the Frankfort Cemetery.

She leaves a husband and three children to mourn her loss. They have the unforgiven sympathy of the entire community.

Election is all the talk among the farmers, but we hope the decision will soon be given, so that the speech may be changed from earthly expectations to heavenly designs.

The singing class met at Mr. J. T. Kendall's on Saturday night, at which time a large crowd assembled and joined in singing praises to their Heavenly Father, which, we hope, did a great deal of good to many that were present. The young folks are meeting for the purpose of serving the Lord.

SWEETNESS.

Cedar Run.

Born.—On Thursday, November 13th, to H. L. Tyler and wife, a daughter.

Miss Lucy Dickerson is very dangerously ill with inflammation of the stomach.

Wm. Cardwell was very much indisposed the first of the week, but is able to go about at this writing.

Mesrs. Bud and Len Moore and Bud Sasser attended the dance at Mr. Phil Sudduth's on Benson, Tuesday night.

One night last week some unknown parties prized the milk box of Mr. E. Dunlap out of his spring, broke it open and destroyed several milk vessels.

Horses are in demand. Laume Flynn sold a gray mare for one hundred dollars, and bought a gray horse from W. A. Moore for one hundred dollars. John Flynn sold H. H. Moore a bay horse for one hundred dollars. All of these animals were under eight years old, so say the boys.

We would like to know what is the matter with Nix. He seems very ill and is out of balance. I do not use one dollar's worth of spirits the night he attended the sitting; we would like to know in what way he was admitted, as he is my author that the admission was one dollar at the door. Now come to time I can't enter into the thought for want of time, but you understand. We know of various ways of admittance in all societies. Some pay their own way, some their friends pay for, some beat the way, some are admitted as honorary members and some may enter like the farmer said, his stock, which trespassed on his neighbor, got into the house and the master would jump up, but go to sleep and fall over the fence. So Nix might have gone to sleep and fallen in the sitting.

Stoney Creek.

Gathering corn and stripping tobacco is the order now.

There will be a wedding this week near the headwaters of Stoney Creek.

Miss Roberta Smith was the guest of Misses Alice and Letezette Browner last evening.

And they say Cleveland is elected. Everything went off quietly in Bald Knob, with no excitement and not half so much interest manifested as there was at our last primary election.

As Bro. Nix has called me to time about an item which appeared several weeks ago, I will state for his benefit that Missionary Baptists hold their church meetings on Saturday for the purpose of transacting the Church business, and, as such, are not an organization of themselves, but are a branch of Pleasant Ridge Church, which was present on Saturday, October 11th, at the incident spoken of occurred, and know what I said to be true. Now, Bro. Nix, I do not believe in spirits as much as you or I would not have been found upon the back seat of a carriage or other vehicle. Being a member I generally occupy a front seat. My advice to you is, "go then and do likewise," and you will not have to call on some one else for your information.

SNOWZER.

A PROCLAMATION.—The season is nigh when it is the yearly want of the people to observe a day appointed for that purpose by the President as an especial occasion for thanksgiving unto God. Now, therefore, in recognition of this hallowed custom, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, specially designate, as such, the fourth Thursday of November, in each year, as a general thanksgiving, Thursday the 27th day of this present November, and I do recommend that throughout the land the people ceasing from their accustomed occupations do then keep holiday at their several homes and the several places of worship, and with hearty and whole hearted acknowledgments to the Giver of Good for the countless blessings whereby he hath visited this nation.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, the 11th day of November, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and Eighty-four, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and ninth.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR.
